

Natural Gas From Prospect to Burner Tip

A seminar to bring energy industry employees into the world of Natural Gas.

This one day class helps students understand the natural gas business and its difference from traditional oil. Upon completion, students will understand physical and operational differences between natural gas and oil, market forces affecting natural gas, processing from exploration to gas plants and pricing and financial instruments. Topics covered include Natural Gas Industry Overview, Supply and Disposition, Gathering and Processing, Gas Transmission, Gas Distribution, Liquefied Natural Gas, Gas Storage, Gas Marketing and Natural Gas Futures/Hedging.

Who Should Attend:

- Accountants, Managers and Operations personnel who have been working in the oil business and whose companies are moving into the natural gas arena.

Delivery Method: Group-Live
Recommended CPE Credits: 8
Prerequisites: None

Program Level: Basic
Advance Preparation: None

Upon Completion of this Program, Participants will be Able to:

- Differentiate among physical and operational aspects of natural gas and oil
- Be able to define and quantify market forces affecting natural gas
- Be able to describe natural gas processing from exploration to gas plants
- Be able to explain natural gas pricing & financial instruments and how your company fits in

Key Topics and Objectives:

- Natural Gas Industry Overview
- Natural Gas Supply and Disposition
- Natural Gas Gathering and Processing
- Natural Gas Transmission
- Natural Gas Distribution
- Liquefied Natural Gas (LNG)
- Natural Gas Storage
- Natural Gas Marketing
- Natural Gas Futures/Hedging
- The future of Natural Gas in the US and the world

Quality programs – offered on-site and adapted for your company. Contact Jim Hoffman at 214.763.9644 or via email at jhoffman@pdi.org. For more information regarding refund, complaint and/or program cancellation policies, please contact our offices at 800.433.5676. Visit us online at energy.pdi.org.